LET'S TALK ABOUT MENTAL HEALTH

Mental health care focuses on addressing and managing the causes and effects of stress, disputes, and trauma resulting from crime, violence, abuse, illness, neglect, job loss, financial difficulties, grief, loss, and the lingering impact of the COVID-19 pandemic.

What's Included

Wellness and Family Counseling

- Support for individuals, students, families, or employees dealing with stress, depression, anxiety, PTSD, or suicidal thoughts.

Parenting Support

- Guidance from professionals to help parents identify and manage behavioral or developmental challenges their children may face.

Trauma Debriefing and Counselling

- Immediate debriefing within 72 hours of a traumatic event, followed by extended counselling to support long-term recovery.

LET'S TALK MEDIATION & LEGAL COACHING

Mediation offers a structured approach to resolving disputes in personal, business, and community settings. This process brings conflicting parties together with a neutral, accredited mediator trained to guide constructive discussions, fostering a forward-looking resolution to the issues at hand.

In South Africa, the introduction of High Court Rule 41A has emphasized mediation as a key problem-solving tool within our legal system. This rule encourages a collaborative approach where mediators assist legal professionals in resolving cases or narrowing down disputes. As mediation becomes a mainstream mechanism, it offers a time-saving and cost-effective alternative to traditional litigation.

What's Included

Divorce & Family Mediation

- Facilitates agreements on divorce settlements, parenting plans, maintenance, and family matters without court intervention.

Workplace Mediation

- Provides businesses with a legal alternative to resolve workplace or labor disputes as part of formal internal processes, avoiding CCMA or court involvement.

Legal Coaching

- Empowers individuals unfamiliar with the legal system to address concerns and make informed decisions before pursuing formal legal action.

With Mediation and Legal Coaching, you save time, reduce costs, and focus on finding resolutions without court proceedings.
